

Statement by Eliquo Hydrok Ltd of compliance to the Modern Slavery Act 2015

The undersigned senior representative of the company detailed confirm that the principles of “Modern Slavery Laws” are understood and confirm the company does not, or will not in the future, support or do business knowingly with any other party involved in any act of slavery, human trafficking, forced, bonded or child labour as defined in the Modern Slavery Laws.

Name of Company	Date
ELIQUO Hydrok Ltd.	9th January 2020
Name (in BLOCK CAPITALS) and Signatory of senior representative	Role and Position within the company (Director/Company Secretary/Authorised Signatory/Partner)
David Armstrong 	Managing Director
E-mail address	Primary telephone number
dave.armstrong@eliquohydrok.co.uk	+44 (0) 1726 862000
Company Registration Number
3242704
The following specific actions are undertaken by the company to support adherence to the Act.
Eliquo Hydrok do not subcontract any of our labour force and so employ all staff through payroll hence ensuring our complete understanding as to their backgrounds. We have a zero-tolerance approach to slavery and human trafficking We require our own suppliers to confirm that they comply with the Modern Slavery Act 2015.

